OUR COMMITMENT

- Based on its high training standards, Swissport is able to meet individual customer needs – friendly, competent and with tailor-made services for every airline.
- We strive to fulfill the highest client expectations in terms of service quality and efficiency. Above all stands our commitment to an unconditional safety-first culture.
- Swissport takes an individual approach with each customer, working closely in partnership to set up the best possible customer experience.
- Swissport invests continuously in the digitalization of its air cargo business to handle air cargo efficiently and intelligently. Innovations such as the cargo app, driverless transport systems, speed cargo, artificial intelligence, kiosks, door management systems, slot booking and Bluetooth ULD tracking give Swissport an advantage to process air freight competitively.
- As a signatory to the UN Global Compact (2011), Swissport is committed to environmental care, the protection of human rights, compliance with labor standards and the fight against bribery and corruption.
