

CHRIS SEVERSON

Chief Strategy & Transformation Officer,
Swissport International AG

Chris Severson joined Swissport International AG as Chief Strategy and Transformation Officer on 9 February 2026 and reports directly to the CEO. He leads enterprise strategy, transformation, and value-creation initiatives and performance improvement across Swissport's global aviation services platform.

Chris joins Swissport from Terra Firma Capital Partners, where he was an Operating Managing Director and the Executive Chairman of untypical Ltd, a leading UK housebuilder formed from the merger of Tilia Homes and Hopkins Homes, with full P&L responsibility.

Before Terra Firma, he served at Philip Morris International as Global Head of Internal Transformation, helping drive PMI's strategy to achieve a smoke-free future and support PMI's expansion into the U.S.

Chris holds a BSc in Mechanical Engineering from Carnegie Mellon University, MBAs from Columbia Business School and London Business School, and is a graduate of TOPGUN, the U.S. Navy's Fighter Weapons School.
